Please see attached power point presentation.

4. Handouts & Roundtable Discussion

Mary Jaquish of First 5 San Bernardino reported: There will be a Police summit next Saturday, October 18 with Jack Brown as the keynote speaker. His corporation affects the needs of the community. Information is in the packet. It is a free, all day event and you can register online. There will be job interviews and on-the-spot hiring, make-up and clothing for youth, and much more information. Community Renewal Conference on Nov. 8th from 8-1 pm at the Calvary Baptist Church in San Bernardino call 909-466-4180.

Renee Bombaci of DCS-ARD reported: Extended thanks to Children's Network for a wonderful conference and for the opportunity for a place to roll out the Child Welfare Redesign.

Nell Gory of Adopt-a-Bike reported: They are working with Headstart children for classes in San Bernardino County. They are getting ready for the Christmas party with distribution of bikes.

Sandy Schaublin of The Caring Center reported: Marcia wrote for California Endowment grant and they are currently waiting to hear if they are successful.

Stephani Congdon reported: Project with Cal State San Bernardino and Somebody Cares Southland in north San Bernardino neighborhoods. They are waiting on HUD grant and if they aren't awarded this year they will gear up to reapply next year. They are gathering strategic and community needs and are looking for partnerships in San Bernardino.

Sally Ann Maas reported: Thank you for providing the packets every month, they are very helpful.

Please review agenda packets for further details on grant information, upcoming events, job announcements, and much more!
